MEMORANDUM FOR: John N. McMahon
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Support for the Intelligence Producers Council

REF: Your Memorandum dated 29 July 1982

1. INR recognizes the utility of the IPC, and gives it full support in carrying out its growing number of tasks. The INR representative now maintains close liaison with the present IPC staff.

2. We also believe a Foreign Service Officer assigned to the IPC staff could make a unique and useful contribution to the Council's work.

3. INR has a shortage of personnel positions and this precludes assignment of a full-time staff member to IPC at this time. However, Mr. Sam Moskowitz, a Senior Foreign Service Officer, will meet with the IPC staff on August 10 to discuss how INR might participate, at least on a part-time basis, in the work of the IPC staff.

4. While this is admittedly a temporary measure, INR wishes to contribute to the greatest degree possible toward the work of the IPC. We will continue to review our staffing resources in this regard in the hope that resources can be found to increase our staff participation to a full-time basis.
